

Climate Tasmania Presents

Music for a Warming World

The power of music, science and community
A stunning visually immersive concert telling the compelling story of climate change

‘Artistically beautiful’

‘Incredible music ... moving live performance’

‘Intelligent, thought provoking and entertaining’

‘Extremely engaging and powerful, both intellectually and emotionally’

‘Created a powerful sense of community purpose’

CLIMATE TALKS (IMAS Building, Castray Esplanade, Hobart)

Tues 21st Feb: Climate change - how bad is it, how to fix it and what will it cost? Prof Eelco Rohling (ANU) 6.00 - 7.30 pm (no charge)

Thurs 23rd Feb: Dangerous Climate Change: An Artistic Response (incl. show preview). Prof Christine Parker (Uni Melb) and Dr Simon Kerr 1.00 - 2.00 pm (no charge)

MUSIC FOR A WARMING WORLD PERFORMANCES

Fri 24th Feb: Clarence Uniting Church, York St, Bellerive, 7.30 - 9.00 pm (tickets at door)

Sat 25th Feb: Brookfield Margate, 1640 Channel Hwy, Margate, 7.30 - 9.00 pm (tickets at door)

Sun 26th Feb: Moonah Arts Centre, 23-27 Albert Rd, Moonah, 3.00 - 4.30 pm

Moonah Tickets at <https://mww-moonaharts.eventbrite.com> (no door sales)

Sponsored by Climate Tasmania
Contact John Hunter 0427 098 831

www.musicforawarmingworld.org

http://www.climate Tasmania.org/wp-content/uploads/MWW_Tas_-Events_Flyer.pdf